Indianapolis, IN (February 18, 2015) — At its Mid-Winter Conference, the Indiana Association of Chiefs of Police elected Chief Jason Dombkowski of the West Lafayette Police Department as Sergeant-at-Arms for the year 2015. Chief Dombkowski has been a member of the IACP Board of Directors since 2013, previously serving as District 4 Director.

Jason L. Dombkowski has over 21 years of service with the West Lafayette Police Department, including the last 7 years as the city's Chief of Police.

Chief Dombkowski holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Indiana University, a postgraduate certificate from the University of Virginia and a Master of Science degree from Purdue University. He is a graduate of Northwestern University's School of Police Staff and Command and the F.B.I. National Academy.

Chief Dombkowski serves on the Board of Trustees for the Indiana Criminal Justice Institute by appointment of the Governor and on the Governor's Council on Impaired Driving.
