Indianapolis, IN (February 17, 2017) — At its Mid-Winter Conference the Indiana Association of Chiefs of Police announced Chief Dave Cincoski from the Chesterton Police Department as its Second Vice President for the year 2017.

David Cincoski is a 19 year veteran of the Chesterton Police Department beginning service in 1998. He previously served as Lieutenant in command of the investigations division from 2003 until appointed as Chief in April of 2010. Cincoski also previously served on the department Emergency Response Team and as a traffic crash reconstructionist.

Chief Cincoski graduated Purdue University in 1991 with a Bachelor's degree in criminal justice and is a graduate of the Northwestern University School of Police Staff and Command.

About the Indiana Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP)

The Indiana Association of Chiefs of Police represents in excess of 95% of municipal law enforcement from around the state of Indiana and has been chartered since 1922. It and its sister foundation provide educational training and benefits to its nearly 500 members.

The mission of the Indiana Association of Chiefs of Police is to promote professionalism, training and networking for the law enforcement executive and to enhance public awareness of law enforcement and public safety issues.

The Indiana Association of Chiefs of Police is an individual member organization consisting of ten local districts within the State of Indiana. Each District has its own elected two-year representative on the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors develops policies and programs for the membership as a whole.
