Carmel, IN (February 6, 2018) —The Indiana Association of Chiefs of Police Foundation (IACPF) held their annual Police Executive Leadership Academy (PELA) Graduation Ceremony in conjunction with the IACP Mid-Winter Conference last month. 21 PELA graduates were recognized for 2017. The PELA program has a total of 689 graduates.

Indiana has a wealth of law enforcement professionals who go above and beyond the call of duty in pursuit of excellence. The IACP holds an annual graduation ceremony in conjunction with the Mid-Winter Conference, to honor and promote excellence within the Indiana Law Enforcement community.

All PELA graduates of the Police Leadership Academy had to complete three modules which focused on leadership, human resources, communication skills, organization development and much more.

The PELA curriculum features three levels based on the leadership scope and needs for law enforcement agencies both small and large. The levels include Basic Police Leadership (BPL), Police Leadership Academy (PLA) and Police Executive Leadership Symposium (PELS). PELA instructors have a vast experience and first-hand knowledge of all topics being taught in the PELA programs.
