What is the Police Executive Leadership Symposium (PELS)?

The 2018 Police Leadership Symposium, Leading into the 21st Century, is designed to explore two distinct themes; what emerging technology will set the stage for U.S. policing as we move deeper into the 21st century, and how do we lead police organizations that recognize our humanity while capturing the best of technology. We welcome all of our police leaders to explore the topics on this agenda and participate with our presenters. Personnel from all rank levels will benefit from this education.
