Carmel, IN (February 6, 2018) — The Indiana Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) is pleased to acknowledge Chief Jason Domkowski of the West Lafayette Police Department as the 2018 IACP President.

“It is a privilege to serve as the President of the IACP in 2018. With the challenges facing law enforcement today, our association of professional police executives is committed to promoting standards, transparency and accountability while serving and protecting Indiana.” – Chief Dombkowski

Chief Jason Dombkowski is in his 25th year of service with the West Lafayette Police Department. He has served as the city’s Chief of Police for the past 10 years.

Chief Dombkowski holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Indiana University and Master of Science degree in Technology from Purdue University. He is a graduate of the F.B.I. National Academy at Quantico, VA and Northwestern University’s School of Police Staff and Command.

By appointment of Indiana Governors Daniels, Pence and Holcomb, Jason continues to serve as Trustee to the Indiana Criminal Justice Institute. He is currently President of the Indiana Association of Chiefs of Police.

Jason is a native of Michigan City, IN. He and his wife Cristie reside in West Lafayette with their four teenaged children.

About the Indiana Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP)

The Indiana Association of Chiefs of Police represents in excess of 95% of municipal law enforcement from around the state of Indiana and has been chartered since 1922. It and its sister foundation provide educational training and benefits to its nearly 500 members.

The mission of the Indiana Association of Chiefs of Police is to promote professionalism, training and networking for the law enforcement executive and to enhance public awareness of law enforcement and public safety issues.

The Indiana Association of Chiefs of Police is an individual member organization consisting of ten local districts within the State of Indiana. Each District has its own elected two-year representative on the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors develops policies and programs for the membership as a whole.
